

George Morris is in Australia

Come and enjoy a rare opportunity to see an equestrian master at work. George H. Morris is considered a legend in the International Equestrian environment. In addition to publishing the book Hunter Seat Equitation, long considered The Equestrian Bible, he serves as the Chef D'Equipe for the American Olympic Team as well as the American High Performance Teams. Honoured as the World's Master Coach in 2009.

Morris will be coaching at the Roycroft's property, Ernbrook Road Mt White from January 15-17 and 19-21, 2010.

During the clinic Mr. Morris will work with participating riders on the flat, gymnastics, and over fences. You will see Morris working with all levels of riding from Australia's elite to our younger and less experienced riders.

Spectators are welcome the cost is just $30 per day with sessions commencing at 8:30AM – bring a chair and a sun hat.

For more information please call Vicki Roycroft 0418 432 842.